

Bad Valentines released a new single, 'November Shadows'

Bad Valentines Return with New Single 'November Shadows'

Helsinki rockers Bad Valentines return with their new single 'November Shadows', following their 2025 EP Memory Tattoos.

"What began as an early blues-based version of the song eventually evolved into a faster, hard-driving blend of Motown and rock'n'roll. Set against an autumnal urban landscape,

November Shadows finds comfort in the darkness, with its shadows offering a constant companion to the loneliness of the mind.

Shadows can be friends. There's no need to avoid them or run away from them" -explains guitarist and songwriter Pekko Mantzin, who wrote the song.

November Shadows* is the first release from Bad Valentines' upcoming debut album, which is currently in the mixing stage.

Bad Valentines began recording the album in spring 2026, laying down 11 tracks in total. The album is scheduled for release in 2027.

Bad Valentines are Hon (vocals), Sirpa Immonen (drums), Lasse Girs (bass), Kupe Wessman (guitar) and Pekko Mantzin (guitar).

'November Shadows' will be available on all major digital streaming platforms on October 2, 2026.

Advance listening – for media only

'November Shadows' advance listening link:

Listen to 'November Shadows'

Follow Bad Valentines

Bad Valentines – Linktree
badvalentines.com

Media materials

Download links for the song, band biography and press photos:

Bad Valentines – Media Kit

Photos: Sonja Vainionpää